he Liberal Rabbi, Despondent and Con-vinced That the World is Unjust, Ac-complishes His Purpose at the Scene of His Former Work.

Rev. Dr. David Stern, the celebrated Jew-th rabbi and scholar, committed suicide at the Wyoming Valley hotel, Wilkesbarre, on aturday, by taking laudanum. He arrived in the city unknown to his many friends there at 9:30 Friday evening, was driven direct to the hotel and retired about 10 o'clock. Nothing more was seen or heard o'clock. Nothing more was seen or nearu of him until 1:30 p. m. next day when groans were heard coming from his room; his door was broken open and he was found stretched on the bed in his underclothing, neonselous and scarcely breathing. On the table at the bedside were severa vials empty and smelling of opium. There were also one or two letters and sheets of paper on the table, one of the latter containing the following words: "Took poison at ing the following words: "Took poison at 10:10; head clear at 10:15."

Drs. Mayer, Crawford and Rippadd were called in and the stomach pump and gal-vanic battery were used all through the afternoon, but without satisfactory result, and at 6 p. m. Dr Crawford pronounced the case hopeless. The unconscious man was still breathing, but the respiration, which was heavy and stertorous, was only 16.

Two of the papers found on the table were intended for the public. One had been written when the doctor had evidently intended killing himself in Philadelphia. It was dated in that city, and was as follows: WEARIED WITH THE WORLD'S INJUSTICE

Having arrived at the deliberate concluree of pain and turmoil, and not know g exactly what day I will carry my pur-se into execution, I deem it right and wise pose into execution, I deem it right and wise to write the following: My name is Dr. Stern; aged about 31; place of birth, Manches-ter, Eng.; occupation, Jewish rabbi. There are quite a number of gentlemen who know me in this city. Mr. D. Klein, 112 Market street; Mr. Herman Heller, on Arch and others. Under no circumstances shall any rabbi or clergyman of any denomination officially act at my grave. Whatever money rabbi or clergyman of any denomination officially act at my grave. Whatever money or gold jewelry is found on my person I bequeath to the poor. The only reason that I have to give the world for my act is that after a struggle of ten years I have become convinced that injustice and selfishness rule the world, and that I possess neither strength nor inclination to continue the struggle any I am weary. [Signed] "DR. DAVID STERN."

"Dr. David Stern."

The other letter was as follows: "Should any religious ceremonies by a friend of mine take place, I command that it shall consist of reading the third chapter of Ecclesiastes, from verse nine to the end, followed by the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah—that and nothing else. My curses upon him who disobeys, changes or modifies."

Another of the letters was scaled, marked private, and addressed to A. B. Weill, of Wilkesbarre, a personal friend of the cabbi.

Troy. New York.

The strength of Ecome lay not in her multitude, nor in her grain-laden fleets. These were elements of strength, but her never falling resource lay in the soit-control and discipline of Rotnan soldiers. Discipline—it is the very soil to all the wonderful meaning possessed by the word "veteran." Mr. Benedict, of Troy, is a veteran in the express business. "Thirty-three years," he said to your reporter, "I've stood at this deak." It is the discipline of years of experience which gives him the postition he holds in the trust and esteem of these three great corporations. "We have a business of Eco.,000 a year, and I've been absent from this office hardly a month in sil that time, although I must confess that many times I've worked here when suffering great pain, for I have been troubled all my with billioussuss and dyspepsis. My system has become so reduced and weak that I had no appetite, and my digestion wholly disorvered. I have tried various remedies, but almost two years ago I happened to hit upon Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. After using only one bottle or so, I began to feel stronger in every way. The great difficulty has been with my digestion, but this seems to regulate it perfectly. I have, sir, great faith in Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. I have bought and given a great deal of it to the poor around here; those, you know, who have no money to buy medicine of any kind, for there are a great many troubled with bilious diseases and suffer on without aid. I siways keep FAVORITE REMEDY in the bouse. I consider it the best mecicine for the blood in the market. Well, I must attend to this matter for the western part of the city. Say, you tell the Doctor I am coming down to Rondout to see him in August. I want to know him," I left the veteran, still at his poot, rejoicing in health and greateful to Dr. Kennedy.
